PALATE TO PLATE

The Boston Printmakers Members Show
Newport Art Museum, Newport, Rhode Island, Fall 2014

An integral part of each Boston Printmaker's board meeting has for many years begun with a pot luck dinner prepared by the board members. We would now like to share with our members. We invite all members to provide a virtual pot luck feast for the eyes. In keeping with the recipe theme from the last members exhibition thINK, this time we are asking all members to submit a print inspired from your favorite food and accompanied with the actual recipe.

The Boston Printmakers
Members Exhibition Palate to Plate
Newport Art Museum, Fall 2014

Dear Palate to Plate book and exhibition artist,

Please read the following carefully this is an update and reminder about deadlines:

We are pleased to inform you that the exhibition will open at the beautiful Newport Art Museum & Art Association (www.newportartmuseum.org) in Newport, Rhode Island, opening in September of 2014 and continuing through the end of the year. We will finalize the exact dates and all other information in the coming months.

The Newport Museum is requiring that all prints for the Palate to Plate exhibition in the fall of 2014 be framed. This will still mean a standard white mat and simple Nielsen type of black metal frame with plexiglass. We hope that this will not be an undue hardship for any of you and that by giving you so much time you can make plans for the framing. More detailed information, including shipping information, will be sent to you several months before the exhibition.

We also want to remind you that the jpeg image of your print and Word file of your recipe for the exhibition cookbook/catalogue are due to me by June 1, 2012. Please try to make this deadline. We cannot start designing the book until all of the work has been submitted. Attached is the information again for submitting your print and recipe for the book.
